

SAVE MONEY

VIRGINIA'S HURRICANE PREPAREDNESS SALES TAX HOLIDAY

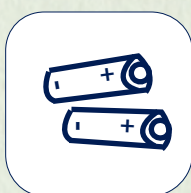

MAY 25 - 31

NEW THIS YEAR
CHAINSAWS ARE TAX-EXEMPT

Sales Tax-Exempt Products for $60 or Less:

Ice packs
artificial ice,
blue ice,
reusable ice

Batteries
AAA, AA, C & D
6- & 9-volt, cell
(excludes auto/boat)

First Aid Kits

Flashlights
lanterns, glow sticks
(excludes candles)

Radios
battery-powered,
hand-crank & electric

Two-Way Radios

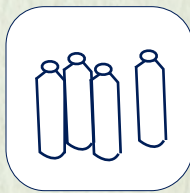

Fire Extinguishers

Smoke Detectors
& carbon monoxide detectors

Ratchet Straps

Bottled Water
any size & number,
including flavored & carbonated

Manual Can Openers

Fuel Containers gas, propane or diesel

Ground Anchor Systems
or tie down kits

Non-Electric Food Storage Coolers

Cell Phone Chargers

NOAA Weather Radios
& weather band radios

Duct Tape

Tarps
waterproof plastic sheeting & drop cloths

Buckets
barrels, canteens, coolers

Rope & bungee cords

Storm Shutters
specific for storms, excludes plywood

Portable generators, generator power cords, inverters & inverter power cables for $1,000 or less are also tax-free.

Gas-powered chainsaws for $350 or less and chainsaw accessories for $60 or less also qualify.

The Virginia Department of Taxation's Hurricane Preparedness Sales Tax Holiday Guidelines and Rules are available online at go.usa.gov/TmGR.

For detailed information about how to prepare your family for hurricanes and other emergencies, visit www.ReadyVirginia.gov.

Ready
✓
virginia

www.ReadyVirginia.gov